COUNTY PRIMARIES.

Republican Primaries Held Throughout the County Yesterday.

Little Excitement Manifested Except in Colorado City and Monument.

The Lone Ticket Successful in the Latter Precinct.

A Solid Gratton Delegation Elected from Manitou.

The republican primary elections, which were held throughout the county yesterday to elect delegates to the county convention which meets on Saturday afternoon passed off quietly and without [illegible] By-[illegible]

On [illegible] the new situation was [illegible] and enthusiastically received. He said [illegible] no conception of the great success and legion which awaited me in [illegible] this first duty was to [illegible] the gentlemen of the convention his most grateful acknowledgement of the favor bestowed upon him. He expressed his kindest and most respectful feelings toward the gentleman who was opposed to him.

Senator Houston of Texas then took a position on the stage and in a short address presented the chairman a beautiful silver-mounted gavel, engraved: Denver Deep Water Convention to the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass Railway Aug. 25, 1888.

Mr. Houston said: The chairman is to keep this gavel in his possession until the convention which will be held at San Antonio about two years from now for the purpose of glorifying the work of securing deep water at Aransas Pass by private capital is convened. Then he shall present it to the chairman of that convention. This remark brought forth applause from Aransas Pass men, and groans from the Galveston side of the house.

Several resolutions were introduced, among which were resolutions drafted at the Ft. Worth convention. The latter were presented by Judge Hancock, with the request that they be referred to the committee on resolutions, which proposal Chase of Nebraska moved that the convention proceed to the appointment of a committee on resolutions to consist of three members from each state and two from each territory, to be chosen by the [illegible] from each state and territory.

Judge Carroll of Texas objected to Texas having only three delegates and asked that she be allowed five, which was agreed to. Kansas asked for an increase, and Anderson of Missouri moved that it be given five. Ives

Ives was then asked to [illegible] minutes to permit the states to select members of the committee, each on being called to [illegible] the committee on resolutions, or which all [illegible] will be announced without delay.

Iowa, James M Berry, A. P. Cleveland, F. H. Hall.

Texas—Walter Gresham, John Hancock, John Sayle, A. C. Connor, A. H. Houston, George Clinch.

Kansas—Howell Jones, J. S. Emery, C. S. Hous[illegible].

New Mexico—Frank S. Hinde, Walter J. Davis.

Arkansas—T. F. Sorrels, D. Fones.

Missouri—W. W. Anderson, D. H. Armstrong, Jno. S. Logan.

The convention then adjourned to 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Stock Markets.

New York, August 29.—The stock market was more active to-day, but was weak, which wiped out most of the gains recorded in the early dealing and left the majority of the active list fractionally lower than last evening's prices. The decision of Judge Farrell against the Iowa railroad commission was regarded as a great bull card, and though that was generally [illegible] at first the demand for stocks was such that prices with many reactions slowly advanced until the last hour. Realizing sales also played an important part and in the last hour became so numerous that almost everything was forced to below the best of opening prices. Coal stocks were again a great feature, though the Iowa decision brought grangers more prominently to the front.

Three sleeping cars one of them occupied by Chris Sprickels the sugar king, rolled down an embankment. Sprickels escaped without injury. A Nihilist Plot.

Paris, August 29.—The Gaulois has advices from St. Petersburg that another nihilist plot has been unearthed. The conspirators who had planned to capture the imperial palace were raided by police who captured twelve men and three women, and secured a number of bombs. Several arrests were subsequently made.

In this precinct there was more excitement manifested than in any precinct in the county. The excitement was occasioned by the presence of several tickets in the field for delegates to the county convention. The fight was entirely a personal one as Colorado City has no candidate for any of the offices. In consequence of the [illegible] character of the contest a very large vote was cast. The highest vote received by any one candidate was 182, [illegible] the precinct was only given three delegates under the apportionment made by the republican county central committee six delegates were elected. The claims of the three additional delegates will be submitted to the convention. The three regular delegates chosen were:

A. J. Brazelton, Charles Stockbridge, [illegible] Hoffman.

The three additional delegates are: [illegible] M. W. Stone, C. E. Brownlee.

Manitou.

The primary at Manitou passed off [illegible] Only one ticket was in the field, and sixty-one votes were polled. Those elected were:

J. L. Rand.	A. Cree.
C. L. Nichols.	S. H. Caldwell.
Isaac Davis.

The delegation is unanimously in favor of Mr. H. H. Grafton for the legislature.

Monument.

The largest and most exciting primary meeting ever held in Monument was that which occurred yesterday afternoon. The rivalry between Messrs. Ford and [illegible] candidates for the legislature, was quite sharp and resulted in the polling of a large vote. The friends of both candidates turned out in full force and worked hard for their [illegible] The meeting was presided over by Mr. R. J. In the evening Mr. Ford was called upon by a large deputation of his friends and was tendered a serenade by the Monument Cornet band. Mr. Ford was equal to the occasion and treated his callers in a very hospitable and handsome manner.

At the Table Rock primary there was a [illegible] between the friends of Messrs. Mack and Ford—both of whom are candidates for the legislature. The former was successful by a vote of 22 to 19.

OUR PENSIONERS.

Pension Statistics for Last Year Made Public.

Largest Increase of the Roll in the Bureau's History.

Immense Evils Found by Congressional Investigation.

Pension Statistics.

Washington, August 29.—The annual report of the commissioner of pensions shows that there were during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1888, added to the pension roll 60,000 new names, the largest number ever added in one year in the history of the bureau, making a total of 452,577 pensioners on the roll at the close of the year, as follows: 326,845 invalids, [illegible] soldiers, [illegible] dependents, 387 revolutionary widows, 596 survivors of the war of 1812, 10,787 widows of those who served in that war, 26,000 survivors of the war with Mexico, and 9,101 widows of those who served in that war. The names of 2028 previously dropped were restored to the rolls, making an aggregate of 62,280 added during the year. During the same period 15,730 were dropped from the rolls on account of death and various other causes, leaving the net increase to the rolls of 46,550 names.

An increase of pension was granted in 45,716 cases. The amount of pensions paid during the year was $78,772,802, an increase over the previous year of $5,358,250. The total amount disbursed by [illegible] agents for all purposes was $79,616,146. The cost attending such disbursements was in the aggregate $3,362,421.81 or [illegible] less than 4 per cent of the total expenditures of the bureau. The total amount expended for all purposes was $82,978,980. There were filed during the year 47,810 applications for original pensions—11,252 widows, 2,766 dependent mothers, and 188 dependent fathers, making a total of 57,750.

The highest number of claims on account of this late war was received from Ohio, Indiana followed next, then New York and Pennsylvania, and from Montana, Utah and South Carolina none were received. The total number of special acts which have become law from 61 to 55 to 2001, and from 55 to [illegible] during the [illegible] administration [illegible] 239 [illegible] signed for reasons [illegible] as [illegible] in the president's message, made public [illegible] time. In the [illegible] years from July 1, 1885, to June 30, 1888, there were issued 191,221 certificates of all classes, and during the three following fiscal years, from July 1st, 1888, to June 30, 1888, 559,372, making an increase for the last three years of 198,818 certificates.

Relations with Canada.

Washington, August 28.—Representative Dwight has added Morrow and himself to the sub committee on foreign affairs which has been charged with the duty of collecting information regarding treaties concerning Canada and the United States and supplemental legislation for the guidance of the full committee in acting upon the president's message and the Wilson bill. The sub-committee has already decided to recommend amendments to that section of the Wilson bill concerning canals, as subject to misconstruction of purpose, or more clearly express by changes in phraseology. The section revoking the privilege of sending Canadian goods in bond over United States railroads is still under discussion, but it is believed a partial report will be ready for action of the full committee to-morrow.

Immigration Evils.

Washington, August 28.—Representative Forbes, of the committee on contract labor, returned to Washington this morning. Speaking of the results of the trip, Forbes said, "I do not think we shall make a report until the entire investigation is completed, and we have more important testimony to take; but what we have taken has convinced the committee that something must be done. The laws relating to contract labor have been violated to an alarming extent because of the lack of machinery to enforce them. The whole of Italy is flooded with steam ship agents who are telling lies about this country to induce immigration. One of the facts brought to light incidentally was that naturalization papers are being issued fraudulently to an alarming extent. Another fact developed was that New England [illegible] about which rights we have had so much trouble, are really made up of [illegible] 75 per cent. As to the remedy, although we shall undoubtedly recommend some legislation, the committee has not agreed upon the form it shall take. One plan which appears to me would be effective would be to [illegible] becoming an American citizen six months before leaving his native country. That would enable the nearest American consular agent to inquire into his character and associations, whether convicted [illegible] criminal or a pauper. Again some [illegible] favor a tax of about $100 on each immigrant, but I cannot agree to that plan."

Collision of Freight Trains.

Staunton, Va., August 29.—A collision between freight trains on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad this morning, near Clifton Forge, resulted in the death of two brakemen and one engineer. The other engineer was seriously injured.

Lincoln, August 29. The democratic state convention met this afternoon and placed in nomination the following ticket: For governor, John Meshane, of Omaha, present democratic congressman from its Fourth district; lieutenant governor, Frank Falda, of Colfax; treasurer, John M. Matterson, of Cass; auditor of public accounts, W. A. Porter, of Boone; attorney general, W. H. Munger, of Dodge.

The basis of apportionment is the same as that of the state convention.

The committee recommend that the several precincts hold their primaries on Wednesday, August 29th, 1888, at 8 o'clock p. m.

For the committee,
JOHN CAMPBELL,
Chairman.
J. W. D. PROTZEL,
Secretary.

The nomination of ex Senator Warner Miller for governor of New York on the republican ticket is a strong one. He will receive the united support of the party and will strengthen the ticket in the Empire state.

General Michener says the Gresham men are working loyally for Harrison and Morton in Indiana. Of course they are. HARRISON Eight Days will be a strong candidate in every way. He deserves and will get every republican vote.

Aside from the bearing which the deep water convention will have on the proposed harbor on the Texas coast it will prove a powerful means in strengthening the mutual relations of the states represented in it. The unity of action which the convention seeks to accomplish will prove of great benefit in securing needful legislation in matters of vital interest to the western and northwestern sections of the country.

Manitou elected a delegation solid for H. H. Croston as a candidate for the legislature. As it is the general sentiment that the northwestern part of the county shall have one name on the legislative ticket, we presume this ensures his nomination. Mr. Grafton will make an able and conscientious representative of this county. Ever since he came here he has grown steadily in public esteem and confidence.

The efforts of the democracy to show that the republican party favors trusts because of the utterances of a single member of the party who failed to express the platform and General Harrison have expressed themselves very differently on this subject.

While the house is incapable to do any business by reason of a failure to secure a quorum, Mr. Mills, the leader of the democratic side, is making his political fight in Illinois and the west. Mr. Mills' interest in legislation apparently ceased when he succeeded in passing his sectional tariff bill.

Captain Rowell, brother of our fellow townsman Mr. Milo Rowell, is a candidate for re-election in the Bloomington district, Illinois. He has just been challenged to a joint debate by the republican candidate in that district. He does not afford it because protection is not the live issue of the campaign. There are seven or eight parties in the field and he cannot afford to accept joint debates with all the side shows.

Elsewhere we publish a letter from Mr. H. George of "The Road." This is written with reference to the following quotation from a letter of his published in the Denver Republican:

"The real facts in the matter were presented to the Omaha Bee, the Gazette for publication, by which Captain Smith explained his position in the recent squabble in that town. The GAZETTE refused to publish the article, either as a matter of news or as a paid advertisement."

His letter contains nothing to prove to the contrary our former statement that what is said in the above quotation is "an unmitigated lie." He did not offer the letter as an advertisement, and it would not have been taken if he had. He was not refused any opportunity to make a statement. He was told that he could have all the room that he wished to reply to the attack of the GAZETTE, and defend his nine, but not to attack other people, so as to bring on a controversy. He apparently coincided with the opinion that his article would be more effective with some parts left out, and he went away from the interview saying that he would change it, and with the perfect understanding that the letter would be published if confined to a defense of his nine. Mr. George is also mistaken in thinking that it is common for newspapers to publish advertisements as reading matter. If he chooses to have his reading columns for sale, he is at liberty to do so. There is no law to make either a newspaper or a base ball nine respectable.

STATE NEWS.

George on a Question.

PUEBLO, August 25, 1888.

To the Editor of the GAZETTE:

Your cutting editorial in yesterday's issue is an injustice and I trust you will do me the kindness to try to think that I really believed that your columns were not open to me. Had I sat at my desk in the office of The Road and used your freezing language toward a visitor, I would regard that visitor as a prime specimen of chump if he did not silently fold his tent and sneak away. No Brother Steele, it is not necessary to knock all the rounds out of a ladder before I can see a hole in it, and it is not absolutely necessary to topple a brick house over on me, more than once, to make me take a tumble. When I presented the card for publication, I expected as a matter of course to pay for it. Such articles are usually so regarded; at any rate "money goes" when anything of the kind goes into my paper. Now what I wish to say is this: That I regret that I have "riled" you or caused you to slip a cog and miss a little cash. Please say to the good people of Colorado Springs that the Solis cigar company think they have the best base ball team in the state, and further believe that a more gentlemanly lot of men could not be gotten together in that calling. We had no difficulty in worsting you when last we crossed bats with you, and we believe we can do it again. We are not in the ball business for money but for the fun of the thing which is why we snapped our fingers at your $25 guarantee. We are not broke either, and if your so called Ford's Sluggers desire a little fun with the Solis nine they can get it by covering a little $25 deposit with the clerk day in one of your banks. Mr. Ford knows where it is and we trust it won't trouble him to walk up and see the cashier.

Now, in conclusion, allow me to once more express my regret that any misunderstanding arose between us, and say that if satisfactory arrangements can be made I will bring my team here and give your people an idea about "How to play ball."

Yours, truly,
HERB GEORGE,
On a Vacation.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Reagan introduced a bill to permit the importation of jute bagging free of duty. Referred to the committee on finance. Reagan said his object was to protect cotton planters against the bagging trust.

Plumb, of the committee on appropriations, refused to call up the deficiency bill for consideration to-morrow.

The resolution heretofore offered by Plumb in reference to diversion of the waters of the Platte and Arkansas rivers and tributaries in Colorado was amended and agreed to.

Stewart offered a resolution calling upon the secretary of the interior for information relative to land grants, patents and timber depredations.

Beck and Morgan each tried to furnish resolutions as called for would entail an enormous expense, and delay current business. The resolution went over without action.

[illegible] in reply to Hoar, as to the [illegible] between southern state [illegible] against states. He remarked that Maine with [illegible] population has [illegible] received two millions more for [illegible] buildings. He also referred to [illegible] made against the administration for waste of expenses, and upbraided republicans [illegible] for supporting such extravagant measures as the Blair educational bill, the direct tax bill, the dependent pension bill, and the proposition to subsidize [illegible]. He characterized Hale's argument as "not fair politics."

Gorman stated that he thoroughly agreed with Allison in his general statement of yesterday as to the condition of the bill. He bore testimony as a member of the committee on appropriations to the absolute fairness of that committee in considering matters without any regard to politics. He expressed amazement at the statement made by Allison concerning a dollar and a half to five millions of expenditures in favor of Arthur's administration against Cleveland's. The statement was partly for partisan purposes. He said the cause of it was largely the sectional feeling engendered and encouraged by republican senators and republican press, which made it possible for any sort of pension bill to pass either house, so that the cost of pensions would be greater than the cost of putting down the rebellion. The time had come when there must be some just limitation of pensions. The republican party had forced this issue. It had forced immense pension appropriations, and now it attempted to hold the democratic party up to the country as a party of extravagance. Gorman quoted many of the principal pension appropriations under the present administration, explaining the necessity therefor, and closed by saying the speech of Allison showed a degree of faithfulness which he trusted his friend from Iowa would regret and would never repeat.

George then took the floor, and after making some remarks on the fisheries question, assented to a request of Allison to have a vote taken on the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill. The report was agreed to.

Allison then moved that the senate take up the amendments other than those settled in conference and ask for further conference. Agreed to, and Senators Allison, Hale and Beck were appointed conferees.

George then proceeded with discussion of the jurisdiction message, and without concluding his speech yielded the floor, and the following bills were taken from the calendar and passed: Senate bill to [illegible] Wyoming and Montana to build a wagon road across the Pikes Peak reservation in Colorado; senate bill granting the use of certain lands in Bayou county, Washington territory, to the city of Tacoma for a public park.

After executive session the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Forney of Alabama asked unanimous consent to introduce for immediate consideration a joint resolution to provide temporarily until September 30th for expenditures of the government. He explained that all appropriation bills had passed except the army and sundry civil bills, and that the resolution only applied to those two objects. Passed.

A bill for printing government securities in the highest style of art was passed.

The house then went into committee on the Oklahoma bill.

Holman offered as an amendment to Payson's amendment providing that land in Oklahoma shall be open to homestead entry only to the [illegible] person seized of any land in any state or territory within three months of the taking effect of the act, shall be either forced to enter any land in Oklahoma.

Peters of Kansas objected to the bill as it stood, and argued against Payson's amendment.

Anderson of Iowa advocated a proposed amendment providing that honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the rebellion making entries for settlement shall be exempted from the payment of the purchase price provided for in the bill.

After further debate Holman's amendment was rejected.

Payson's amendment was also rejected.

The Anderson amendment the vote stood 5 to 47, and the point of no quorum was made.

Adjourned.

New Freight Rates.

CHICAGO, August 25.—Nothing has been done by the railroads of late which has so stirred up Chicago merchants as the action of 31 transcontinental lines in adopting a new scale of freight rates between New York and the Pacific coast and Chicago and the same points. Rates on cotton goods to-day from Chicago to San Francisco for first, second and third class goods are $2.25, $2 and $1.75. New York rates on the same articles are $1.50, $2.50 and $1.80. The transcontinental agreement proposes to increase Chicago rates to $2.90 on all classes, while lowering New York rates to $1.80. The same is done with coast articles. It is proposed that the Chicago rate to San Francisco in that connection be made $1.85 per hundred. The New York rate to remain $1.80. Chicago merchants under this [illegible] New York [illegible] goods for California than ship from there and save about $1.00 per 100.

T. W. Shanahan, Signal Corps.

—Dr Chamberlain and wife, have returned from their eastern visit

Dr J. B. Cranfield, of Texas, will speak on prohibition at the court house this evening.

Mr. G. L. Hamilton, solicitor for the Denver Times, called at the GAZETTE office yesterday.

A number of citizens who have failed to pay their poll tax are to be prosecuted in the police magistrate's court.

The Delmonico restaurant property has been sold to Mrs. Sara J. Fummins. Mr. F. G. Rowe negotiated the sale.

Mr. H. H. Stevens' store on South Tejon street was sold through the real estate agency of Tutt, McDaniel & Co. The price obtained was in the neighborhood of $10,000.

The ladies' aid society of the Christian church will give a mite social at the residence of Mr. John Robertson, No. 518 Nevada avenue, this evening. Strangers as well as friends are invited.

Dr. W. L. Bartlett has presented the Colorado Springs base ball club with a very fine bat, in appreciation of their recent work with the willow. The bat is on exhibition at Bell's drug store.

The GAZETTE Printing company yesterday received a car of flat manilla paper for use in the job department. This is the largest invoice of any one kind of paper ever received by any office in the state.

The Firemen's band will give one of their enjoyable open air concerts in the south park this evening, instead of tomorrow evening. The change was made on account of the attraction at the opera house to-morrow night.

There will be a special examination of candidates for positions in the city schools to day and to-morrow. The examination will be held in the high school building, and will commence promptly at 9 o'clock each morning.

Messrs. C. E. Sabin and E. C. Baker have disposed of their stock of paints and wall paper to the Newton Lumber company, which will consolidate the business of both establishments and conduct it under the management of Mr. C. E. Sabin.

W. H. Barlow has just put on the Cascade toll road to Pike's Peak a splendidly equipped outfit and in the future will be prepared to send parties to Pike's Peak from Cascade canon. For information and orders call at his stable, No. 123 Pike's Peak avenue.

Deputy County Surveyor Taylor returned yesterday from his inspection of the Pike's Peak toll road. In the report which he will present to the board of county commissioners he will state that the builders of the road have complied with the law in every respect and that it is one of the best mountain roads in the country.

Parties wishing stock in the first series of the P. O. S. of A. Building, Loan and Investment association should secure it at once, as the second series will be issued within ten days. Applications for stock should be made to the following persons: J. H. Tredings, A. A. McGovney, C. L. Gillingham, Dr. T. C. Horn and S. N. Nye.

Miss Fannie Aiken leaves to-day for Chicago, where she will resume her musical studies. Miss Aiken is the leading soprano in the choir of the First Presbyterian church, which is one of the largest churches in that city. She is also a member of the Chicago Ladies quartette, which gave a number of excellent concerts last winter. It is to be regretted that the music-loving people of Colorado Springs will not have another opportunity of hearing Miss Aiken this year. Those who attended her song recital in The Antlers music room on Tuesday evening expressed themselves as being highly delighted with her singing, which was the occasion of frequent and hearty recalls.

Yesterday afternoon, about 1 o'clock, City Marshal Dana, acting under the instructions of Chairman Calloway of the committee on public grounds and buildings of the city council, prohibited the sewerage contractors from excavating in the south park. The contractors at once conferred with the committee on sewers, who directed them to proceed with the work, but Officers Gathright and Atkinson would not allow the laborers to enter the park. When the committee on public grounds were seen, they stated that they objected to teams being used on the work in the parks, as the grass would be seriously injured, but as the contractors finally agreed to be responsible for all damages to the parks they were allowed to proceed with the work.

The New York News in speaking of the Cattle King which will be produced at the opera house to morrow night said: "A melodrama new to this city. 'The Cattle King,' was presented on Monday evening at the Windsor theatre with Mr Jas H Wallick in the dual role of Bob Taylor and Dare-Devil Dick. The piece was handsomely staged and the mechanical working of the transformation scene was well done and decidedly effective. The story of western life is well told and the play is full of interest, has a plot sufficiently involved and scenes and situations that keep the audience on the [illegible] what is to follow and after enough something does follow that is more exciting than the last. Hair breadth escapes, bulls, daring, [illegible] heroics, a marriage on horseback, reckless horseback riding, etc. fall to the share of Mr Wallick, known as the Cattle King or Dick, the outlaw, and in either character he is equally equal to the emergency. His [illegible] come in for a goodly share of praise for intelligent acting. The tricks of the prize colt Texas brought down the house. The comedy was of such a kind as to prevent a surfeit of too much heroism, and it nicely shaded the scenes. The singing, dancing and specialties came in naturally and were greatly relished. Mr George Barr, as the villain Morin, was all that such a scoundrel should be, and Miss Carrie Radcliffe, was clever as Katherine Paxton. 'The Cattle King' is a strong and interesting drama, and is a winning card for Mr. Wallick."
